Coaches Contract Year _____ Team _____

As a coach, you have a powerful influence on the kids you coach. Everything you say and how you say it, along with everything you do has the ability to impact the kids who play for you – either negatively or positively. Your character and integrity will constantly be tested in every decision you make. If handled wisely, you will gain the trust and respect not only of your players but the parents as well. This will make your job as a coach much easier, fun and your team successful.

Always remember a coach is a teacher and that you are in a great position not only to teach softball skills but also life skills.

- 1) Provide a safe and positive environment for your players and fans
- 2) Demonstrate good sportsmanship at all times regardless of the situation.
- 3) Be faithful and diligent in the scheduling of practices and game
- 4) Be well-groomed - especially at competitions
- 5) Refrain from using drugs, alcohol, tobacco products and profanity around players and fans
- 6) Maintain a respectful social life
- 7) Maintain and be responsible for any and all equipment assigned to you
- 8) Support and promote all Topeka Queens clinics, camps, fundraisers and projects
